

Glenn K Lackey - Glenn has been a resident of Rome Twp. in Athens County since 1973. He attended Bluffton College. Glenn is an owner in his family farm, known as Red Bird Ranch, which consists of approximately 1,000 acres of beef cattle, row crops, hay and pasture. Prior to coming to Athens County, the Lackey's farmed in Franklin County. Red Bird Ranch has been a cooperator with the Athens SWCD office for 48 years. Organizations in which Glenn has or is currently serving include: Athens County Planning Commission, Ohio Farmland Preservation Board, Athens County Farm Bureau serving in various capacities, Ohio Farm Bureau member, American Farm Bureau Natural Resources and Livestock Advisory Committee and a member of the Canaanville United Methodist Church. Glenn has served on the Athens SWCD Board of Supervisors for the past 12 years. Glenn and his wife Bonnie have two sons, Brandon (Bethany) and Kavon. They have one granddaughter, Aria.