

The Shape of Things...

Here are some shapes to get you started.

Copy this page and cut out the shapes using heavy construction paper or cardstock. (They will last longer and can be used again.) The name of the shape on each will reinforce recognition of shapes. Use a hole punch to create a hole and string the shapes on yarn to create a necklace or bracelet long enough to be easily used to compare the shapes the student will find in nature.

